

This because I had to change the file name ... from 4crypto to project3

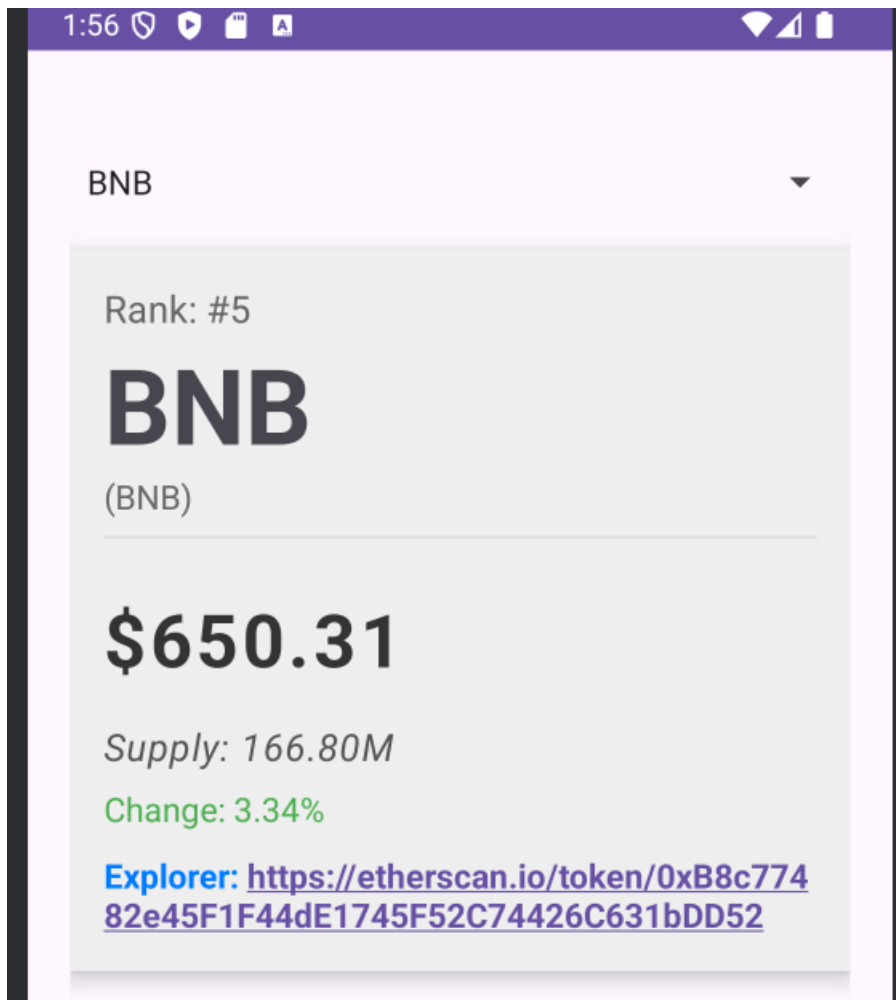

When I run the program

Included the man points

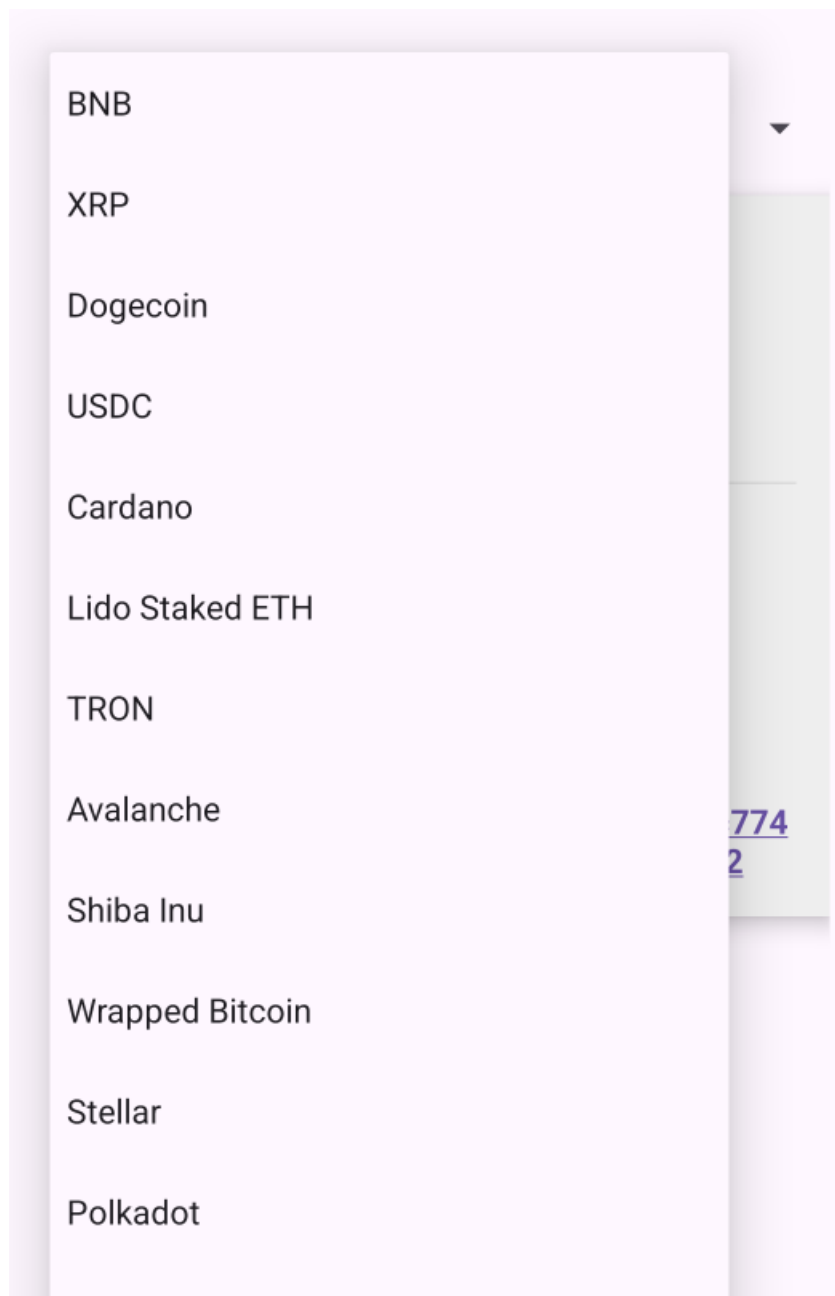

Its simple but professional in my opinion

If the change is positive will show green and if is negative will show red

Including rank of the coin, name, symbol, price, supply, change

And explorer is the link that sends you to the website

Using the drop down menu u can chose different coins